OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 5 February 1963

1. [] The Director accompanied by Mr. Warner appeared before the Mahon Defense Subcommittee of House Appropriations Committee.
2. [] The Director accompanied by Mr. Warner met with Senator Stennis to discuss the briefing arranged for tomorrow for Senate Preparedness Subcommittee. Later, Mr. Tidwell and Mr. Warner met with the Preparedness Subcommittee staff.
3. [] Robert McManus, Senate Internal Security Subcommittee staff, called concerning a story in the Chicago NEW CRUSADER of 12 January 1963 which indicates that official Washington recognition had been given of the fact that Cuban troops are in Cuba. His inquiry is whether we might have any inkling as to what official recognition might be involved, if true. I said I would check the matter and be back in touch with him.
